

Ag Specialist III position, full-time, restricted, working in agricultural field production located at VA Tech's Southern Piedmont AREC, Blackstone, VA.

Virginia Tech's Southern Piedmont Agricultural Research and Extension Center in Blackstone, VA is seeking an energetic and conscientious individual with training and experience in production agriculture and/or environmental science to generate, collect, analyze and transfer results from field, greenhouse, and laboratory research on field crops, especially tobacco, and beef cattle. The successful candidate will interact with the farm manager and project leaders to conduct experiments and support all programs at Southern Piedmont. Experience operating agricultural and/or research equipment required. More comprehensive descriptions of the requirements, qualifications and preferences for this position can be found at www.jobs.vt.edu and searching on posting number SW0170413. Virginia Tech is an equal opportunity/affirmative action institution.

Please contact Carol Wilkinson or Betty Lou Mayton should you have any questions at (434)292-5331.